

Bulgarian Food Cheat Sheet

DJOB (pronounced "job") in Bulgarian translates to literally "pocket." It refers to the pocket sandwiches found on busy streets of our cities. All djobs come in warm bread from a local bakery, stuffed with quick pickle cucumber slices, shaved onion, home-made lutenitza (red pepper & tomato spread) with your choice of meat, or vegetarian option.

KEFTA: Beef patty w/ finely chopped onions in the beef patty mix, Bulgarian herbs & spices, fermented for at least 24 hours, CHARCOAL GRILLED.

KEBABCHE: freshly ground pork, long-shaped patty, Bulgarian seasoning, fermented for at least 24 hours, CHARCOAL GRILLED.

SIRENE: Famous Bulgarian cultured white brined cheese. It is used in various recipes and dishes, from salads, sandwiches.

LUTENITZA: Mild red pepper and tomato spread. Traditional spread made from fire roasted red peppers, tomatoes and eggplant, traditional seasonings, slow-cooked for hours.

DONER KEBAB: Yogurt marinated chicken in fresh bread with our secret creamy garlic sauce, quick pickle cucumber slices, shaved onion
